ABSTRACT

This unit is designed to give students insight into the British contribution to civilization with study emphasis on those nations that have had political, economic and cultural ties to Great Britain. Geographic and historic factors are outlined as background for study of the development of cultures of the British Isles, India, Kenya, Australia, New Zealand, Canada, and the United States. Objectives for each of the goals of the course and suggested learning activities for each area of study are outlined. A bibliography of recommended instructional materials is included. (SHM)

INTRODUCTION

This course of study was written as a part of a total effort to revise curriculum to fit the quinmester administrative organization of schools. The materials and information in this guide are meant to be neither all-inclusive nor prescriptive; but rather, an aide to teachers as they plan instructional programs, taking into account student needs and characteristics, available resources, and other factors.

The major intent of this publication is to provide a broad framework of goals and objectives, content, teaching strategies, class activities, and materials all related to a described course of study. Teachers may then accept the model framework in total or draw ideas from it to incorporate into their lessons.

The guide is divided into 1) a broad goals section, 2) a content outline, 3) objectives and learning activities, and 4) materials. The first section provides descriptive and goal-oriented information for the teacher; "indicators of success" refers to suggested prerequisite or corequisite experiences. The content outline illustrates, in general terms, the scope and major subdivisions of the course. The objectives and learning activities section, hopefully, provides a total picture of the concept or main idea and specific behavioral objectives for a set of given learning activities. The materials section of the guide lists resources in four categories: essential textual or other material; alternate classroom materials to use in place of or in addition to the aforementioned; supplementary teacher resources; and supplementary student resources. The appendix may include other material appropriate for a specific course: e.g., pretests, readings, vocabulary, etc.

Anyone having recommendations relating to this publication is urged to write them down and send to : Social Studies Office, Room 306, Lindsey Hopkins, A-1.

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
I. THE GEOGRAPHY OF THE BRITISH ISLES. NOTE: Section I (A, B, C) is primarily designed as background material. It is necessary for a better understanding of the course, yet must be limited in time.	A. Students will gather data on the various geographical aspects of the British Isles.	1. No doubt your students will recall some facts and skills from elementary school geography. Each student should have an individual set of maps available (be it a Geography text book or a low-priced paperback atlas). A set of wall maps or transparencies will help the teacher in giving directions and also enable students to "lead" the class in various activities. 2. Have your students study a map of Great Britain and one that shows Great Britain in relationship to the rest of Europe. 3. Discuss: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Compare the size of Great Britain with the rest of the European continent.</li> <li>b. Compare the area and population of the United States of Great Britain with that of the United States at the present time. (see Exploring a Changing World p. 247)</li> <li>c. How is the name "England" often incorrectly applied to the island of Great Britain?</li> <li>d. What three sections is the Island of Great Britain divided into? Examine the geographic features of each.</li> </ul> The correct name of the country is the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (although it is generally called "Great Britain" for short). Northern Ireland comprises the fourth part of the United Kingdom. 4. Assign several individual students to report back to class on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Why did Northern Ireland choose to remain with Great Britain when the Irish Free State (today the Republic of Ireland) broke away in 1921?</li> </ul>

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
		b. Why is there still unrest and strife in Northern Ireland? What controversies divide the two factions? (Use Readers Guide for some recent articles on the subject). 5. Assign other students to research the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Important agricultural products of Northern Ireland.</li> <li>Manufactured exports of Northern Ireland.</li> </ol> 6. If you are using a World Geography text, assign portions of reading in the chapter dealing with Great Britain. 7. Conduct a general map-study of Great Britain: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Familiarize your pupils with the important cities. Are they located in England, Scotland or Wales?</li> <li>Discuss the climate and how it is affected by the surrounding oceans.</li> <li>Study an industrial, agricultural and resource map of the British Isles.</li> <li>What are Britain's major exports? What British products have we come in contact with?</li> <li>Locate the following Lesser British Islands: Orkneys; Shetlands; Hebrides; Isle of Man; Anglesey; Sicilly Isles; Isle of Wight.</li> </ol> 8. Appoint a committee to construct a wall-sized outline map on which they can pin or scotch tape cutouts to indicate: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Large cities and seaports</li> <li>Various natural resources</li> <li>Industrial centers</li> </ol>

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
		d. Agricultural products e. Centers of heaviest population g. Discuss: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. As the widespread industrialization of the isles has curtailed agricultural production, what food products need to be imported from other countries?</li> <li>b. From what countries do Britons get most of their dairy products? Grain? Meat?</li> </ul> 10. Schedule several films on the land and the people of the British Isles (see bibliography section B - Films - sub-section c). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. If possible, preview each film and give your classes two or three questions to be answered after they have viewed the film. (Suggest that instructor give questions ahead of time so students will remain alert throughout the film).</li> <li>b. Follow each showing with a class discussion as to the important things the film brought out, or:</li> <li>c. Ask pupils to either write a resume of the film or make up a number of questions (complete with answers). These may eventually be placed in their notebook.</li> </ul> 11. Construct a map quiz (an outline map) on which students should be able to identify the four sections of the United Kingdom, important cities and seaports, other countries close to her (such as the Republic of Ireland and countries on the Atlantic coast of the European continent. In addition, you

HISTORIC DEVELOPMENT.	B. Students will examine events in early British history and describe the most important events. NOTE: In addition to library materials, a world history text would be appropriate for this objective.	can have your pupils make up a number of objective questions concerning climate, products, exports and imports, etc. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Show the filmstrip, Britain: An Enduring Heritage part 1, Guidance Associates.</li> <li>2. Assign the following for student committee research (and discuss with your class after committees have made their report).           <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Britains earliest settlers were Iberians; who were they and where did they come from? How "civilized" were they?</li> <li>b. What and where is Stonehenge? (Probably built as part of an Iberian Temple).</li> </ol> </li> <li>3. About 600 B.C. the Celts began to arrive. Discuss:           <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Where did they come from?</li> <li>b. What is the significance the Celtic name Brython?</li> <li>c. Who were the Druids and what role did this priestly caste play in ruling "Brython?"</li> <li>d. What were the three languages derived from the Celtic tongue? (Gaelic in Scotland, Erse in Ireland and Welsh in Wales).</li> </ol> </li> <li>4. Trace Julius Caesar's conquest of England (55 to 54 B.C.) from Gaul. (Caesar's death interrupted the conquest and it was renewed by Claudius in 43 A.D.). What was the significance of the Roman contact with England?</li> <li>5. At this time, appoint a committee to make and maintain a historic "time line" on a large sheet of paper (use magic marker or colored chalk). Each student will be expected to keep up a smaller duplicate in their notebooks.</li> </ol>

6. Have students research and report on the following:

- a. Who were the Picts and where did they come from?
- b. Who were the Scotti (Scots) and where did they come from?
- c. What role did the above groups play in British history?

- 7. Roman rule continued to be challenged by the Picts and the Scotti (Scots). Because of trouble within the Roman Empire they withdrew their armies in 401 A.D. and finally "released the Britons from their allegiance to Rome" in 410 A.D.
- 8. Nordics landed and settled during the declining years of Roman rule. Discuss:
  - a. The coming of the Angli (English).
  - b. The coming of the Saxons.
- 9. Many legends have evolved around a 6th century Christian king named Arthur and his knights. You may be able to obtain a filmstrip, have pupils conduct readings, assign book reports or encyclopedia reports on some of these legends.
- 10. Christianity (Catholicism) became widespread in Britain and Ireland during the 7th century. Assign some interested students to report on the early missionaries that were instrumental in converting Britain.
  - a. Augustine and Paulinus.
  - b. Aidan and Bede.
- 11. During the 8th century Vikings migrated from Scandinavia and sacked the island. Gradually they settled parts of England, converted to Christianity,

		battled against the Saxons. What influence did they have upon British history? 12. Assign research reports on: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The Vikings.</li> <li>The Normans.</li> <li>The battle of Hastings (1066 A.D.).</li> </ol> 13. Following almost a century of Norman rule, King Henry II left two sons to scheme for the throne. While the elder King Richard (the Lion-hearted) was off with the Crusades, his younger brother John took over the realm and incurred the displeasure of the people, the nobility and even the pope. On June 15, 1215, he was forced to sign the Magna Charta -- the Great Charter. 14. Assign a committee to make a brief report on the above document and the circumstances surrounding the signing. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Why did King John feel forced to sign it?</li> <li>How did this historic document change the relationship between Kings (and Queens) and the Nobility?</li> </ol> (You will have the opportunity to spend more time on this important milestone in history in the next section). 15. It was not until James I (1603 A.D.) that the King was considered as "Sovereign of Great Britain" rather than "King of England." Much revolt and war helped shape the history of this island nation. 16. Review the section on Early History with your class

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
	using the time-line as an aid. You may want to add other events to the time line, such as the following (without going into detail): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The first Parliament is summoned by Edward I in 1295.</li> <li>The "Hundred-Years War" with France when King Edward III claimed the throne of France as well as England (1338 to 1453).</li> <li>The Plague ravages Britain (1348-1349).</li> <li>Peasant Revolt in 1381.</li> <li>King Henry VII assumes the throne (1485).</li> <li>First in the Tudor line.</li> </ol> 17. To evaluate the section on Early History, you can reproduce a "time-line" listing on it the events you consider most important. Provide space for the students to elaborate on each of the events you have listed. 18. After discussing all the invasions of England, have each student select one invasion as the one he considers most important in terms of influence upon England. Have the student(s) defend his (their) choices. 1. Discuss the meaning of the following terms with your class: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Divine Right (of Kings).</li> <li>Absolute Monarch.</li> <li>Constitutional Monarchy.</li> <li>Representative Government.</li> <li>Nobility.</li> </ol> 2. Discuss the following question with your class: "In the days when a king held 'absolute power', what circumstances would persuade him to grant
GOVERNMENT DEVELOPMENT	C. Students will trace the development and evolution of the British Government into a Constitutional Monarchy.	14

		Greater privileges and guarantees of freedom to his supporters?" 3. The above happened several times during British history: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. King Henry I (1100-1135) whose title to the Crown was doubtful because of succession, granted special rights and privileges in a charter hoping to gain his subject's favor and retain him as King. (known as King Henry I's Charter).</li> <li>b. King John (1199-1216) had lost popularity with the nobility, the people and even the Pope. He was pressured by a group of Barons to sign a document (based on Henry I's Charter) called the Magna Carta in which he granted many privileges and gave many guarantees to the nobles. Some of the 63 provisions in this 'Great Charter' served as a model for the U.S. Constitution over five hundred years later.</li> <li>c. King Edward I (1272-1307) was personally interested in the welfare of his people and helped bring constitutional government to Great Britain. Assign several students to report to class on the provisions of the Magna Carta. (an encyclopedia will probably prove a satisfactory source).</li> </ul> 4. Discuss: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. What is the representative body of government in Great Britain called?</li> <li>b. What advantages would a King (or Queen) have in working with a representative body? (King John had called a meeting of representatives from</li> </ul>

		his country in 1213 because it was an easier way for him to remain in contact with all parts of his realm). 5. King Edward I, previously mentioned for his work in bringing a constitutional government to the nation, codified all existing laws. He also added many criminal and civil laws and helped revise the court system. 6. Discuss: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. What is meant by "Constitutional Government?"</li> <li>b. Why was Edward I called the "English Justinian?"</li> <li>c. What did King Edward I mean when he said: "That which touches all shall be approved by all!" and "Common dangers must be met by measures concerted in common."</li> </ul> (Judging by these quotations, what type of a person would you judge Edward to be?) 7. Assign several students to do some library research and report back to the class for further discussion (and explanation): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. What are the qualifications for being a member of the House of Lords at the present time?</li> <li>b. How does one become a member of the House of Commons today?</li> <li>c. What are Britain's major political parties?</li> <li>d. How are general elections scheduled?</li> <li>e. Explain: The executive branch of government is controlled (and part of) the legislative branch.</li> <li>f. How is a prime-minister selected?</li> </ul>

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
		8. The King or Queen is technically the head of state in Great Britain, her Commonwealth and Colonial Territories. Explain how the monarch's function is more symbolic today.
		9. Succession to the Crown is based on heredity and follows the laws of primogeniture. Parliament has occasionally altered succession and therefore, really has control over who serves as monarch of Great Britain and her Commonwealth. Discuss an example of when and why this was done.
		10. Parliament's functions are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. To make laws.</li> <li>b. To appropriate money.</li> <li>c. To impose taxes (House of Commons only).</li> </ul>
		11. Show filmstrip - Great Britain and Northern Ireland: 940 Government (Eye Gate, N.Y.)
		12. Discuss: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. The role of the Queen or King.</li> <li>b. Which holds more power today: Commons or the House of Lords?</li> <li>c. Membership of each house.</li> <li>d. Must the King or Queen always adhere to the Constitution? Why or why not?</li> </ul>
		13. Assign several pupils to draw reproductions of British flags: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. The Royal Standard.</li> <li>b. The National Flag.</li> </ul> (Explain why the National Flag is made up of three crosses: St. George's (England); St. Andrew's (Scotland) and St. Patrick's (Ireland).

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
THE REFORMATION.	D. Students will describe the effects of the Reformation to the beginning of British Imperialism.	1. At this time the teacher might present the class with some background information about the protestant Reformation in Europe to set the stage for its coming to England. A good source for this period of history is Queen Elizabeth: Conflict and Compromise, Part 1, "Religion and Politics." 2. Allow a committee of about four students to research and debate the following: "King Henry VIII was justified in divorcing Catherine of Aragon." 3. Discuss: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>King Henry VIII felt he was a good Catholic even after he broke with the Papacy.</li> <li>The Pope had at one time bestowed the title "Defender of the Faith" on Henry because he had denounced the Protestants on the Continent.</li> <li>The Pope probably would have granted a divorce to Henry had it not been for the fear of offending Catherine of Aragon's powerful nephew Charles I.</li> <li>Henry VIII set himself up as head of the Church of England and broke away from Roman Catholicism because this was the only way he could legally divorce Catherine. At the same time, he objected to Lutheran influences in England.</li> </ol> 4. Discuss the effects of the break with Rome (the Catholic Church) on England: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>It proved the supremacy of the State over the Church.</li> </ol>

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
		b. Henry VIII confiscated church-held properties sharing them with members of the nobility. This increased his popularity and assured support of those who benefited from his actions. c. He permitted the publication of Bible's translated into English and approved the use of English in church services. d. His break with Rome also caused increased enmity with the major Catholic powers such as France, Spain and Portugal. e. Since these aforementioned powers were now engaged in exploration, especially in the New World. (The Pope had divided the world between Spain and Portugal with the demarcation line). still seeking. f. Since trade with the European (Catholic) countries had ceased, merchants were now seeking new trade outlets. 7. Henry VIII was succeeded by his son Edward VI, and later by Mary, his devoutly Catholic daughter (by Catherine of Aragon) who unsuccessfully attempted to return England to the Roman Catholic Church. 8. Have the students write a brief essay explaining in part, to England's new role of expansion beyond her borders.

GOAL #2: STUDENTS WILL INVESTIGATE THE EXPANSION OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE THROUGHOUT THE CONTINENTS OF THE WORLD AND EVALUATE THE STRATEGIC AND ECONOMIC IMPORTANCE OF EACH PART THEREOF.

II. BRITANNIA RULED THE WAVES: COLONIAL EXPANSION.	A. (Heavy cannons at close range).</li> <li>b. What dealt the final blow to the Armada's defeat? (Storms).</li> <li>c. How did this Spanish defeat affect English sea power? (The English navy became the most powerful in the world.)</li> </ol> </li> <li>5. Discuss the implications of the defeat of the Armada:             <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. 		the world between Spain and Portugal? b. How did it give England a free hand in beginning a policy of imperialism? 6. After Elizabeth's death, she was succeeded by her nephew, James I of Scotland (son of Mary Stuart, the Catholic heir to the English throne who was beheaded under Elizabeth's reign). a. James I stormy reign did succeed in uniting Scotland and England. b. He authorized a new translation of the Bible henceforth known as the "King James Version" (an interested student may wish to report on this). c. His attempts at authoritarian rule were greatly resented by the people. 7. Briefly discuss the following facts with your class: a. During James I's reign, he chartered two successful Virginia companies. Jamestown was founded in his name. b. The New England Colony was established when a ship of Pilgrims accidentally landed in Plymouth instead of Virginia. c. Settlements were also made in Bermuda, New Foundland and the West Indies. d. Trading posts were established at that time on the other side of the globe (India) in Bengal, Madras and a factory built at Surat near Bombay.
		1. With the help of your students, locate British settlements in the West Indies (1603-1666). a. The Bermudas. b. The Guiana colonies. c. St. Christopher ("St. Kitts"). AMERICAN COLONIES. 8. Students will gather facts about British colonization in America. a. The Guiana colonies.

		d. Nevis, Monserrat and Antigua. e. Barbados. f. Jamaica. 2. The North American Colonies (1607-1733): Most of your students will be familiar with some of the facts (give several examples) concerning the establishment of the 13 North American Colonies settled by the British. Review some of these facts: a. With the help of your students, list the names of these colonies. b. Determine which were the most important - list and discuss the reasons for settling each colony, i.e. religious, economic, political, etc. (most U.S. history texts will provide you with this information). 3. Discuss: a. What were some of the reasons the Americans felt they had to sever relations with the "Mother Country?" (see the Declaration of Independence) b. Judging by previous political activities in Europe (that you have discussed in class), why were France and Spain so willing to assist the colonists in their fight? c. Acts of King George III were generally cited as reasons for the "break"; ask a committee of two or three students to research - whose acts these were, King George's or Parliament's. d. Where was the last decisive battle fought, and how did the Treaty of Paris (1783) affect Spain and France?

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
		4. In spite of the defeat at the hands of the American colonists, British seapower continued to grow because she concentrated her efforts into naval rather than land forces. This remained Britain's main source of strength throughout the next 100 years. Why was England committed to maintaining a strong navy? 5. In 1800 (during the reign of George III) Ireland was united with England; the Irish parliament was dissolved. This was a result of strife in Ireland and an attempted invasion by France. 6. Have the students review or read about French exploration in North America. 7. French Cardinal Richelieu helped found the Company of New France (1627). Ignoring English claims, the company was granted exploration rights "from Florida to the Arctic Circle." What would you imagine to be the English reaction to this? 8. In 1713 the Treaty of Utrecht was signed, ending a bloody European conflict. Among the treaty's provisions France surrendered her claims to Newfoundland and Nova Scotia to the English. 9. Discuss the implications this had on the future of a British Canada. 10. Discuss the strategic importance of another part of the Treaty of Utrecht in which Spain ceded Gibraltar to Britain.

4. Portugal had already penetrated trade with India and established herself as the most important European influence.

- During the first quarter of the 17th century, British ships successfully defeated the Portuguese who had for years closed Indian ports to others.
- In 1615 a trade agreement was reached between England and the Mogul Emperor.
- Additional trading posts were established by the British East India Company.

5. Discuss the following with your class which influenced British policy:

- The Mogul Empire of India was in danger of deterioration because of advances made by the war-like Mahrattas (Marathas).
- Inroads made by the French East India Company.
- war between England and France that spread to other parts of the world where both countries had interests (the French and Indian war in America) including India.

6. Assign individual or group reports on the following personalities:

- Joseph Francois Dupleix of the French East India Company, who first attempted conquest of India by a European power.
- Robert Clive who succeeded in defending the British foothold in India against the French.

7. After 1815 the British grip on India continued to grow. Governor Generals were appointed, revolts suppressed, natives organized into armies under British officers. In 1877 Prime Minister Benjamin Disraeli had Queen Victoria of Britain also declared Empress of India. (This supposedly inspired the loyalties of her Indian subjects. British Viceroys ruled this greatest of all European colonies.)

Until World War I any nationalistic movements were minor in scope and quickly suppressed by Britain.

8. In order to give your students a general idea as to other British expansion into the Far East, ask for brief reports on the circumstances surrounding the acquisitions of each of the following:
  - a. Singapore.
  - b. Hong Kong.
  - c. Malaya.
  - d. Borneo.
  - e. Burma.
  - f. Ceylon.

1. Engage in some preliminary map study of Australia, New Zealand and nearby islands.
  - a. List the six states of Australia and their respective capitals.
  - b. What is the status of "territories?"

2. Existence of this island continent had been theorized by the ancient Greeks, but the first European to actually sight this continent was a Dutch explorer named William Janszoon in 1606.

3. Assign a small group of students to research and report on the voyages of James Cook who charted

AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND.

AFRICAN COLONIZATION.	E. Students will gather data on British colonization on various parts of Africa. 1. No study of British imperialism would be complete without mentioning two prime-ministers who contributed to the growth of the Empire. Assign reports on the contributions of these two men. Encourage book-reports on biographies and discuss their lives, and conduct class discussions on their achievements. a. Benjamin Disraeli b. William E. Gladstone 2. Locate the Suez Canal on your map. Discuss: a. Why was the canal vital to trade between Europe, India and the Far East? b. How did it become one of the "life lines" of the Empire? c. Why is the canal considered of vital importance to the U. S. interests today? 3. Show film The Suez Canal (see Bibliography i.e. Misc.). Ask pupils to take notes. 4. Explain the circumstances under which Disraeli acquired the canal for Britain and how it led to the British control of Egypt.

GOAL #3: STUDENTS WILL FORMULATE HYPOTHESES AS TO HOW ECONOMIC AND NATIONALISTIC FACTORS HAVE BROUGHT ABOUT MAJOR CHANGES IN THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN BRITAIN AND HER FORMER COLONIES AND DOMINIONS.

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
III. ECONOMIC AND NATIONALISTIC INFLUENCES.	A. Students will describe the effects of the Industrial Revolution to Britain's Policies of imperialism.	1. Ask your students to find the meaning of the following words: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Colony</li> <li>b. Dominion</li> <li>c. Territory</li> <li>d. Protectorate</li> <li>e. Trusteeship</li> <li>f. Sovereign (Independent) State</li> <li>g. Condominium</li> </ul> 2. The gradual change from colonial power to commonwealth of nations involved many factors; ask your students to give THEIR interpretation of the terms "Colonial Empire" and "Commonwealth of Nations." 3. In this change that took place between 1815 and 1943.... a. What specific factors can your students suggest that may have contributed to this change? b. What were the motives of the Mother Country (Britain) in granting more and more self-rule to many of her colonies? 4. Have the students cite examples of the so-called Industrial Revolution in England. Show the filmstrip, Industrial Revolution, EBEC. 5. Discuss: What factors existed in England that were conducive to the change from hand-work to machine? 6. Assign students to report on some of the early British inventions that began the process of industrialization in the textile industry.

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Edmund Cartwright's Power Loom. f. James Watt's Steam Engine.	7. Discuss how the need for more raw materials (because of improved manufacturing methods) affected the need for more colonies. 8. Divide the class into discussion groups and ask them to attempt to provide answers to the following: a. How does industrialization affect the standard of living of a country? b. What type of a country would benefit the most from industrialization? c. Is England, as the United States, still in the process of industrializing? Are there any nations not yet involved in this "Revolution?" Explain. 9. Discuss each of the following questions with your students: a. How did the policy of imperialism help provide raw materials for an industrialized Britain? b. How did the policy of imperialism help provide markets for British manufactured products? c. How did Britain's superiority on the seas help in the trade between the Mother Country and the colonies?

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
RISING NATIONALISM.	B. Students will compare rising feelings of nationalism to the greater autonomy granted to the colonies.	1. Explain and discuss the word "nationalism." <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. What identifies a group as a "nationality?"</li> <li>b. What gives people a feeling of belonging to a certain national group? Example: Common cause, language, problems, etc.</li> <li>c. Why do some groups have stronger feelings of nationalism than others?</li> <li>d. What events seem to cause nationalism to rise?</li> <li>e. In what way can nationalism be a positive factor? How can it become dangerous and destructive?</li> </ul> 2. Discuss how "humanitarian" changes in the British (and American) people during the 19th century brought about changes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. How did the abolition of slave trade under the British flag (1807) affect the relationship with African colonies?</li> <li>b. How did various missionary societies alter the image of the British in her colonies?</li> <li>c. What did the lowering of restrictions on trade between the colonies and other nations ("free trade") contribute to the economic status of the colonies?</li> </ul> 3. As more immigrants from the British Isles settled in the colonies, they attempted to shape them more in the image of the Mother Country. Assign a capable student to report on Edward Gibbon Wakefield (of the Colonization Society) on what he called "Systematic Colonization." 4. In question (1.c) your class should have concluded that wars usually cause a marked rise in nationalism.

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
THE GREAT WORLD WARS.	5. Ask your class to consider the effects of World War I and World War II upon British nationalism, upon nationalism in British possessions. a. To suppress it and keep the colonies subdued, or b. to grant them greater autonomy and treat them on the basis of an "equal partnership?" c. Another alternative? which of these was followed? Discuss the implications had the other alternatives been used. 1. Shortly before the first World War (1914-1918) many social reforms took place in Britain. For example, an old age pension for people over 70 was established in 1908. Several hundred labor exchanges (employment services) were established in 1909 to assist with jobs. Compulsory workmen's health and accident insurance was implemented to help pay for medical service and subsistence for workers who were ill. Unemployment insurance was limited to certain trades. This liberalism also filtered down to some of the colonies. a. Africa: Self-government was granted to the Union of South Africa, Transvaal and the Orange Free State (they all voted to combine into one state -- the Union of South Africa (1910).  b. India: Legislative councils were opened to natives. A limited number of educated

		natives were granted the right to vote and elect certain officials. India was still responsible to the British Parliament, and agitation for more self-rule was steadily increasing. 2. In August 4, 1941, Britain entered into World War I. Discuss: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>With millions of volunteers or "drafted" men from the colonies and from self-ruling dominions fighting side by side with men from the Mother Country, a change in the relationship with the colonies was bound to result. How do you think this relationship was affected?</li> <li>How do you think raising and organizing an army to fight for Britain's cause affected the feelings of the people in the colonies?</li> <li>How did the war strengthen the British Empire?</li> </ol> 3. As Germany and Turkey were among the losers of this war, German colonies were divided up among the victorious allies, many of which went to Britain in one form or another. Parts of Turkey in the middle east (such as Palestine -- today's Israel and Jordan) became British mandates as part of the peace treaty of Versailles. 4. The term "British Commonwealth of Nations" made its appearance after the war. Discuss the meaning of the term "Autonomous countries." 5. World War II broke out in September, 1939. Shortly thereafter Britain found herself alone in facing the mighty Nazi war machine.

		6. Select from among the films in section (1.a) in the bibliography section dealing with the war period. Winston Churchill, a professional film in two segments (by Wolper) is especially recommended to give insight into the World War II period. 8. After the second World War, the word "British" was dropped from the title "British Commonwealth of Nations" since the character of this "club" had changed 9. Ask your pupils to write a paragraph on each of the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>List as many factors (as you can recall) which were instrumental in bringing about major changes between Britain and her colonies and dominions.</li> <li>Why can the two World Wars be called the "turning points" in the relationship between Britain and her colonies effecting a change from "Empire" to "Commonwealth."</li> </ol>

GOAL #4: STUDENTS WILL CONTRAST THE FUNCTIONS OF YESTERYEAR'S COLONIAL EMPIRE WITH TODAY'S COMMONWEALTH OF NATIONS AND ESTIMATE BRITISH INFLUENCE ON THE GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT OF EACH MEMBER NATION.

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
IV. THE COMMONWEALTH OF NATIONS. BRITAIN AND HER COMMONWEALTH.	A. Students will gather information on present day life in England.	1. The character of the British Empire to Commonwealth has changed dramatically. Through Britain was on the victorious side in both world wars, her economic problems were tremendous at the end of World War II. Compare the economic status of Britain (the victor) with that of Germany (the loser). (Assign a group of students to report vital statistics on both countries during the past year, such as exports, gross national product, average income, etc.) 2. Assign students to research and report on the problems Britain faced after the war by being excluded from the Euromart (Common Market). (At this writing, Britain is still not a member....but by her own choice now!) What is Britain's status in the Euromart this year? What advantage would it be to Britain to join? How would this affect the Commonwealth? Why do the member nations not want Britain as a member? 3. This is the proper time to begin to use a set of recent World Geography Texts (see Bibliography) in order to go into some detail as to present-day developments in the Commonwealth Nations. Please make extensive use of film and filmstrips which will help you greatly in achieving a better insight into these nations. Look into the Bibliography section on film and filmstrips. 4. Ask for a committee to volunteer to visit a local travel agency and bring back posters, folders and information on travel to Britain.

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
INDIA AND PAKISTAN.	B. Students will investigate current life in India and Pakistan and contrast it with that of colonial times. 5. If your school library has a record collection, try to obtain such records as "God Save the Queen", "Rule Britania" or any other English, Irish, Scotch or Welch music for your classes. 6. Discuss news articles (brought in by your students pertaining to current happenings in Britain.) 7. Schedule as many films as you are able to out of Bibliography section 1.c dealing with current life in the British Isles. 8. Ask your students to prepare a short essay describing a make-believe trip through parts of the British Isles. 1. Assign reading on India and Pakistan in your set of Geography texts, confining assigned material to modern times. 2. Show films and filmstrips dealing with Gandhi and Nehru as well as those dealing with life today. (see Bibliography 1.e. India.) 3. Discussion subjects: a. Was Gandhi's "Passive Resistance" the best way in which to achieve his goals? b. Why is there still friction between India and Pakistan today? 4. Ask students to construct a resource chart showing India's natural wealth. 5. Assign group reports on any of these subjects: 50

AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND.	D. Students will describe conditions in Australia, New Zealand, and Canada today.	9. Based on what your class has studied and discussed, ask each student to write a paragraph describing their personal predictions (as specific as possible) titled "Kenya - twenty years from today." 1. People have observed a great deal of similarity between Australians and Americans. Discuss with your class how they think these similarities developed (include ancestry, colonization, a wilderness to conquer, etc.) in the characters of both nationalities. 2. Compare Canberra, the national capital with Washington D.C. in these ways: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Neither are a part of any state.</li> <li>They are planned cities. (Canberra was designed by Chicago architect Walter B. Griffin in 1911).</li> </ol> 3. Australia's population is about 12 million people, half of which live in urban areas on the coast. The population density is about 3.9 people per square mile. (Compare with 51 in the United States). Discuss: Why is Australia encouraging immigration from other nations? How many Americans are moving to Australia each year? Why? 4. Using your geography text as a resource, discuss the importance of the following industries: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Sheep farming (wool).</li> <li>Agriculture (wheat, sugarcane, fruit).</li> <li>Mining (Zinc, iron and petroleum).</li> </ol>

		5. Discuss with your students the reasons why Australia is a geographical link between Asia and the West. 6. New Zealand is closely tied to Australia and there is a great similarity between the people. Using a Reader's Guide, ask a student to make a report on life in New Zealand today. 7. Show films Australia Today, and Changing Matilda: The New Australia. 8. Assign a report on the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>What ties does Canada still have with Britain?</li> <li>How long has Canada had a separate government? Describe how it functions.</li> </ol> 9. The Commonwealth of Nations covers about 25% of all land areas. In thinking back over the material covered, discuss with your class how a small island such as Britain was able to exert such a positive influence throughout the world. 10. Ask students to write a composition listing the implications of belonging to the Commonwealth of Nations. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Do all nations belonging benefit or only Britain?</li> <li>Are ties economic only or cultural as well?</li> </ol> 11. The "British Imprint" on her former colonial empire has not always been an advantageous one. Ask your students to list the ways in which colonialism can exploit a land. Give examples.

GOAL #5: STUDENTS WILL EXAMINE DIFFERENT CULTURAL FACTORS AND EVALUATE THE EXTENT TO WHICH BRITISH INFLUENCE HAS LEFT ITS MARK UPON WESTERN CIVILIZATION, INCLUDING OUR OWN NATION.

FOCUS	OBJECTIVE	LEARNING ACTIVITIES
V. OUR HERITAGE OF BRITISH CULTURAL IMPRINT: LANGUAGE	A. Students will examine how the English language has acted as a cultural tie between the United States and Britain. 1. Trace the English language to the Anglian and Saxon as well as Latin influences (refer to section I. B, Historic Background. English borrows heavily from other languages it comes in contact with, attaching native prefixes and suffixes. The history of the English language is divided into three time-periods of development: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>... to 1100 AD (Old English)</li> <li>From 1100 to 1500 AD (Middle English)</li> <li>From 1500 to the present (Modern English)</li> </ol> 2. Discussion: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>What was the language spoken by most of the thirteen English colonies in America?</li> <li>In spite of their anger at being mistreated by Parliament and King George III, how did most colonists really feel about the "Mother Country?"
